

BLAST FEMME

platinum-clad ladies vogue at the discotheque-leaving all the boys pining-hard-wired horned and wet...femmed-out men in full length skirts-queering power branding fame and making it work...patriarchy commodifies female sexuality-debilitating independence and profiting from sensuality...its time for our human tribe to overcome false dualities-let our trans sisters and brothers shape a nascent reality...let the blast femme spirit inspire our resistance-let riot porn instincts disrupt the cogs of the system...its time for a new rebellion-time for the zeitgeist of praxis...its time to organize a subterranean army to demolish the proto-fascists...femininity is seductive, translucent, and raw-let inspired women lead us toward cosmic truth's new dawn...give support to your mother-your partner-or your friend-only through solidarity will this neoliberal hell ever end...we build power in the present armed with a vision of our future-we seduce new lovers training disciples we will nurture...blast femme is the clarion call of an emergent feminist pride-trans and queer stand arm-in-arm fighting for an end to this toxic blight...inspiration is everywhere if you only open your third eye-pay attention to the stars and the moon late at night...karmic rebels come together armed with creative expression-we will fight to the death for the end of this system
