

MECHATRONICS: the architecture of evolution arming our tribe with an arsenal of pride—we craft magic spells and stimulate our manic minds...recreating a genesis of nascent crypto-crime—realigning the matrix that is recreated deep inside...ruled by a narcissistic sociopath charting a path to social death—we resist the intrusion of pathology into our creative heads...we build community as we organize: fighting so stigma comes to a final end—resisting all oppression and blessing our planet with our sacred breath...we are engineering a power to transform our world—envisioning a moment when red and black flags will unfurl...bringing the birth of artificial intelligence into a tantalizing raspberry swirl—building a dance floor so fluid that juiced-up boys metamorph into girls...mechatronics go supersonic styling our troops in cylon gear—dialectic and diabolic our red mafia lives without fear...we build an army of cyborgs fueled by nitrogen rapidly fusing into more—we build a battalion of interstellar fighters highly trained in the dynamics of class war...the mechatronic paradigm transcribes a future worth fighting for—envisioning an alternative to the barbaric world that this kleptocratic regime has in store
