

PELVIC SERPENTS

hypnotic, erotic, and intensely and viscerally exotic—we weave our way through this matrix evolving towards the supersonic...deeply inspired by potent and ancient pagan poetry—we meditate to rebalance and hone jedi powers when we breathe...we invent our own religion forged of the spiritual and the carnal—we fuck when desire inspires and we transform sex into a divine ritual...confident, beautifully sculpted, and powerfully hung—our bond transcends the transactional like the moon reflects the sun...this is an intergenre mindfuck transpiring on my bed— i conjure an image of your soul while i give you cosmic head...sacred circles unfold in the sky touching my mind of manic zen—wormholes to distant galaxies transcribe their vistas in my head...the soundtracks to which i groove control the rhythms of my fires—we feel our global interconnections when we rise to fight and when we allow ourselves to cry...this is big time sensuality inspiring transgressive currents—i live my life a willing slave to the allure of pelvic serpents
